

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a shameful example of the abuse that media consolidation leads to.

If Sinclair does not desist in it's action of forcing one sided propaganda on the American public such as the John Kerry smear program "Stolen Honor" I hope you will not renew Sinclair's license and will consider stripping them of their license for their betrayal of the public trust in their misuse of the public's airwaves.
